How Gov. Wolf's Proposed 2015-16 Budget Would Impact Rep. Mary Jo Daley's District

After four years of austerity budgets that made deep cuts to public services, public schools are struggling, property taxes are rising, and Pennsylvania remains near the bottom of state rankings in job growth since 2011. Gov. Wolf has proposed a budget that reinvests in our future by restoring funding for education from pre-K to college and delivering property tax relief to homeowners.

School Districts in Rep. Mary Jo Daley's Legislative District Would Receive

- $795,819 in new funding
- 58 new Pre-K slots
- $901,095 in savings from standardized payments to cyber charters

Meanwhile, Homeowners Would Receive Property Tax Relief

- The typical homeowner in the district will see a property tax reduction of $1,219
- That's a reduction of 25%

A Drilling Tax Would Raise Millions in New Revenue for Schools and Other Needs

- $5.3 million for the district
- $1.08 billion statewide

Gov. Wolf's Proposed Minimum Wage Increase Would Raise the Wages of

- 4,436 workers in the district
- That's 15% of district workers

The Budget and Leveraged Federal Funds Would Also Support Investments in Human Services in the District<sup>1</sup>

- Human services funding increase of $38,230<sup>2</sup>
- 762 individuals newly eligible under Medicaid
- 86 more children will receive health coverage under CHIP
- Increased funding for mental health services of $903,269

Gov. Wolf has also proposed that residents of Rep. Mary Jo Daley's district subject to the Philadelphia wage tax will receive a portion of $251 million in tax relief
